

Fashion Symposium: Montreal, September 23, 2017

Application Form

General Information:

Name:
Affiliation:
Email address:
Recent publications on fashion (optional):
Would you like to be included as a member on our Fashion Scholars Website?

Intro Talk: 5min

At this Symposium, you will have the opportunity to present your fashion-related work, research, publications, projects, designs, and collaborations in a 5-minute TED-Talk-style presentation. Please be as concise as possible. This is not a conference presentation, but an ice-breaker and introduction, so you then may network with the people whose work you are interested in during the second part of the Symposium. You may include a visual presentation, but will have to send it to the organizer ahead of time. No late submissions will be accepted.

Briefly describe the nature of your fashion-related work (1-2 sentences):
How does your work promote fashion culture and fashion studies in Canada (1 sentence max)?
Please include 3-5 keywords that pertain to your research interests: <ul style="list-style-type: none">•••

Networking, Discussions, Collaborations:

This Symposium is designed to foster a community of fashion scholars, curators, professionals, designers, educators, and fashion press across Canada. The goal of the annual gatherings at various museums in Canada is to bring together fashion scholars from across Canada and to provide a space for a variety of discussions, collaborations, and exchange of ideas.

What goals do you have for this Symposium?

-
-
-
-

What are your preferred discussion topic(s):

What types of collaborations are you interested in?

Workshops

The second half of this Symposium will be dedicated to specialized workshops, during which participants will have a chance to host and participate in Roundtable discussions or hands-on workshops of their interest. We encourage you to propose and host one pertaining to your expertise and interests.

Past workshops included: Fashion and Technology, Indigenous Fashion, Fashion Research Methodologies, Fashion Media, Eco Fashion, and Fashion Collecting and Curating.

What type of workshop would you like to host and organize?

What type of workshops are you interested in participating at this Symposium?

Participants are responsible for planning their own travel and accommodations. This year, we have to introduce an administrative fee of $10 to offset the printing, planning, organizational costs. Please send your cheque or e-transfer to the organizer, Katrina Sark (katrina.sark@mail.mcgill.ca), with this application form, by July 1, 2017. The fee is non-refundable.